

Invest in the way you live

The BetaShares NASDAQ 100 ETF (ASX:NDQ) aims to track the performance of the NASDAQ-100 Index (before fees and expenses), providing investors with exposure to the performance of the 100 largest non-financial securities listed on the NASDAQ stock market. The Index contains category-defining companies across major industry groups such as technology, telecommunications and retail.

Many of the companies in which NDQ invests are integral to our everyday lives, such as Facebook, Apple, Amazon, Netflix and Google, otherwise known as the FAANGs. These companies and many others in the NASDAQ-100 have been revolutionary, changing the way people live.

Reasons to invest in BetaShares Nasdaq 100 ETF:

- ▶ Technology exposure - access some of the largest, most innovative companies in the global technology sector that are changing the way people live including Apple, Google and Facebook
- ▶ Access to the US - NDQ invests in US companies and gives exposure to the US dollar
- ▶ Cost effective – cost of ETF is lower than traditional active managers focusing on US equities
- ▶ Reduced administration – as NDQ is domiciled in Australian dollars, investors do not need to fill out any further administration forms or deal with any potential US tax issues
- ▶ Accessible – the ETF can be bought or sold like any share through a single ASX trade
- ▶ Liquidity – trades on ASX during the day
- ▶ Transparent – portfolio holdings, value of the ETF's assets and net asset value per unit available daily on BetaShares' website.

Access the companies that are revolutionising our everyday lives in a single ASX trade with BetaShares NASDAQ 100 ETF (ASX: NDQ).
