Chamath is the Head of Fixed Income at Betashares and is a voting member of the firm's Investment Committee. He is responsible for managing the fixed income ETFs and leading the fixed income product development initiatives. In addition, he shares responsibility for the strategic and dynamic asset allocation decisions for the Betashares model portfolios.

Previously, Chamath was a fixed income trader at the Reserve Bank of Australia, working in their FX reserves management function in Sydney and London. There, he managed the RBA's Japanese and European government bond portfolios across a range of market conditions.

Chamath holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree (First Class Honours in Finance) from the University of Melbourne. He is a CFA® charter holder and has sat on the Bloomberg AusBond Index Advisory Council.
