2. How super works

Super is a long-term savings arrangement designed to provide you with an income in retirement. Super is partly compulsory in that most Australian employers are required to contribute 12.0% of an employee's ordinary time earnings, to a super fund of the employee's choice, or where an employee doesn't make a choice, to a MySuper product nominated by the employer (these contributions are known as Superannuation Guarantee or SG contributions). Most employees have the right to choose where their SG contributions are paid. To find out more visit www.ato.gov.au or www.moneysmart.gov.au.

There are different types of contributions available to you including additional employer contributions (e.g. salary sacrifice contributions), voluntary member contributions and government co-contributions. You may also be able to split particular types of contributions with your spouse, which would be paid into your spouse's super account.

The tax savings in super are provided by the Government. However, there are limits that apply to contributions to, and withdrawals from, super funds. There are also limits on the amount of voluntary contributions you can make.

You should read the important information about 'How super works' before making a decision. Go to the 'How super works' section of the Reference Guide, located at www.betashares.com.au/super/documents. The material relating to 'How super works' may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

4. Risks of super

All investments carry risks including the potential for loss of income or capital, a less than expected rate of return or a delay in payment. Different investment strategies may carry different risks, depending on the assets that make up the investment strategy. Assets with the highest expected long-term returns may also carry the highest level of short-term risk.

Other risks relevant to the Fund and super generally include:

- The value of investments will vary over time.
- Returns are not guaranteed and you may lose some of your money. In particular, if you leave the Fund within a few years of joining, you may get back less than the amount you contributed because of low or negative investment returns, and the impact of fees, charges and taxes.
- The level of returns will vary, and past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance.
- Super and/or taxation laws could change in the future, which may affect the value of your super and/or the ability to access your benefit.
- The amount of your future super savings (including contributions and returns) may not be enough to provide adequately for retirement.

It is not possible to identify every risk factor relevant to the Fund. The level of risk for each person will vary depending on a range of factors, including:

- age;
- investment time frames;
- where other parts of the person's wealth are invested; and
- the person's risk tolerance.

You should consider consulting with a financial adviser to properly understand the risks associated with the Fund, the investments that make up your super and your attitude to investment risk.

You should read the important information about 'Risks of super' before making a decision. Go to the 'Risks of super' section of the Reference Guide, located at www.betashares.com.au/super/documents. The material relating to 'Risks of super' may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

5. How we invest your money

The investment menu has been designed to offer you choice and flexibility. How you invest will depend on your personal circumstances and your risk profile. Whether you choose to invest in a single investment option or a combination of investments, you can switch your investments at any time.

In Bendigo SmartStart Super you are required to maintain a Cash Account with a default minimum of 1.5% of your account balance for operational reasons such as the payment of fees and insurance premiums, if applicable.

You can choose to invest in a range of investment options with differing risk and return profiles, a MySuper investment option and a choice of managed funds. Members who are not invested in Bendigo MySuper will also have the ability to increase the allocation to the Cash Account above the default level of 1.5%.

The available investment options are:

Bendigo MySuper
or
Cash Account	Bendigo Defensive Index Fund
Bendigo Defensive Wholesale Fund	Bendigo Conservative Index Fund
Bendigo Conservative Wholesale Fund	Bendigo Balanced Index Fund
Bendigo Growth Index Fund	Sandhurst Strategic Income Fund – Class B

If you do not make an investment choice when you join Bendigo SmartStart Super or if you elect to invest in Bendigo MySuper, your account will be attributed to Bendigo MySuper and your money will be invested as detailed below.

If your account is attributed to Bendigo MySuper you cannot choose to invest in other investment options and you will not be able to increase the allocation to the Cash Account.

If you no longer wish to be invested in Bendigo MySuper and wish to make your own or alter your investment choice, you can do this at any time by making an investment switch, either online or in writing, and providing a Deposit Instruction (refer to 'How we invest your money' in the Reference Guide for further information on making a Deposit Instruction).

Bendigo MySuper is an age-based lifecycle investment strategy that is comprised of three age-based life stages, as follows:

- under age 55: Bendigo Growth Index Fund;
- age 55 to 59: Bendigo Balanced Index Fund; or
- age 60 and over: Bendigo Conservative Index Fund.

Your account is automatically allocated to the appropriate investment based on your age. When you reach the age of the next life stage, future contributions will be automatically invested in the next life stage investment, with your account balance switched into that next life stage investment option during January of the following year. This means the investment risk automatically reduces as you get older without you having to remember to complete a switching request.

The following table describes the key features of Bendigo MySuper.

6. Fees and costs

DID YOU KNOW?

Small differences in both investment performance and fees and costs can have a substantial impact on your long-term returns. For example, total annual fees and costs of 2% of your account balance rather than 1% could reduce your final return by up to 20% over a 30 year period (for example reduce it from $100,000 to $80,000).

You should consider whether features such as superior investment performance or the provision of better member services justify higher fees and costs.

You or your employer, as applicable, may be able to negotiate to pay lower fees. Ask the fund or your financial adviser.

TO FIND OUT MORE

If you would like to find out more, or see the impact of fees based on your own circumstances, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) MoneySmart website (www.moneysmart.gov.au) has a superannuation calculator to help you check out different fee options.

The Fund's fees and costs are not negotiable. The text set out above is required by law to be included in all superannuation product PDSs.

The information in the Fees and costs summary below can be used to compare costs between different superannuation funds. Fees and costs may be deducted directly from your account, from the returns on your investment or from the Fund assets, including the Fund's reserve, as a whole.

The fees and costs will depend on each investment option you select. The investment fees and costs and transaction costs below relate to the Bendigo MySuper investment option only. For each investment option, other than Bendigo MySuper and the Cash Account, the specific fees and costs for that investment option are set out in the underlying managed fund's product disclosure statement available on our website and should be read in conjunction with the below. Note the investment fees and costs for the Cash Account is nil.

7. How super is taxed

Tax may apply to contributions, investment earnings and withdrawals. Generally, any taxes applicable to super are at a concessional (lower) rate. In most cases, Bendigo Super deducts tax and remits it to the Australian Taxation Office on your behalf.

Warning: You should provide your tax file number (TFN) when acquiring this product. You are not obliged to provide your TFN to Bendigo Super. However, if you do provide your TFN, the Fund will be able to accept all eligible types of after-tax contributions, you won't pay more tax than you need to, and it will make it easier to locate any lost super benefits or consolidate your super. Further information about tax is available from www.ato.gov.au.

Contributions: concessional contributions are subject to contributions tax of 15% and depending on the level of your income an additional 15% tax may also apply. Non-concessional contributions are generally not subject to tax in the Fund. Taxes may apply to transfers of super into the Fund from an untaxed source (e.g. certain public sector schemes).

Warning: There are limits on the amount of contributions you can make to super each financial year. You may pay extra tax if these contribution limits are exceeded.

Investment earnings: net investment earnings are taxed at a maximum rate of 15% (the actual rate may be less due to tax credits or other rebates available to the Fund).

Withdrawals: The amount of any tax you pay on withdrawals will depend on your age at the time of payment and the taxation components that make up your benefit.

If you are under the age of 60 you will not pay tax on any tax-free components. The amount of tax payable on any taxable components will depend on your age and the amount of the benefit.

If you are aged 60 or over withdrawals from your account will generally be tax-free.

You should read the important information about 'How super is taxed' before making a decision. Go to the 'How super is taxed' section of the Reference Guide, located at www.betashares.com.au/super/documents. The material about 'How super is taxed' may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

8. Insurance in your super

The Fund offers insurance that can cover you for unexpected events that affect you, your family and your future retirement plans. It is not compulsory to take out insurance cover although if you do not want Default Cover to automatically start once you meet the eligibility criteria, you will need to opt-out of this cover on your application to join.

What cover is available?

Bendigo SmartStart Super offers the following types of insurance cover in the Fund:

- Death Only (including Terminal Illness cover) (if you are aged 15 to 69);

- Death and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) cover (if you are aged 15 to 69*); and/or
 - Income Protection cover (so long as you are working 15 hours or more a week) (if you are aged 15 to 64).
- *Standard Default Cover is Death Only from age 65.

Maximum amounts of insurance cover available are as follows:

- Death cover: Unlimited;
- Terminal Illness cover: $5,000,000;
- TPD cover: $5,000,000;
- Income Protection cover: the lesser of:
 - 1) The benefit accepted by the insurer.
 - 2) 75% of Earned Income (as defined in the Insurance Guide) plus super contribution benefit (up to 10% of Earned Income); or
 - 3) $30,000 per month.

There are costs associated with insurance cover, which you pay in the form of insurance premiums. Insurance premiums are deducted monthly from your account.

As a member of the Fund you have two options with your insurance. Each option may result in different types of cover:

1. Default Cover

Standard Default Cover is unitised which means that the cost of cover ($1 per unit per week) will remain the same but your level of cover per unit will change as you get older. Standard Default Cover consists of 4 units of Death and TPD cover at a cost of $4 per week.

The actual amount of Standard Default Cover per unit that you will receive will depend on your age next birthday, your gender and your type of occupation.

To work out if you are eligible, when cover will commence and how much Standard Default Cover you will receive, refer to the Insurance Guide.

Warning: Unless you decline or cancel your Default Cover, the cost of the cover will be deducted from your account.

2. Tailored Cover

You can apply for Tailored Cover to suit your personal circumstances. Tailored Cover is fully underwritten, and therefore you will need to provide evidence of your health (refer below: 'How do I apply?'). You have the following options to tailor your cover:

- Apply for 'Fixed Cover' (Death Only or Death and TPD cover). You can apply for this cover on top of your Default Cover or instead of your Default Cover;
- Apply for Income Protection cover;
- Transfer existing cover into the Fund from another insurance policy, subject to conditions (this can be added to your Default Cover and/or Fixed Cover), and/or
- Apply for additional cover based on a life event.

For more information about Tailored Cover, please refer to 'Tailored Cover' in the 'Insurance in your super' section in the Insurance Guide.

Warning: Further information about the cost, and the terms and conditions of both Default and Tailored Cover including eligibility for, and cancellation of insurance, can be found in the Insurance Guide, located at www.betashares.com.au/super/documents.

This information may affect your entitlement to insurance cover, and should be read before deciding whether insurance in the Fund is appropriate for you.

How do I apply?

You do not need to apply for Default Cover if or when you meet the eligibility criteria set out in the Insurance Guide – you will automatically receive Default Cover unless you ticked the box in your application form to opt out of this cover. We will write to you when you become eligible and provide you with the opportunity to decline the cover by completing the relevant form.

If your account balance is less than $6,000 or you are under the age of 25, but would still like Default Cover, you can opt-in on your application to join or within 120 days after joining by completing the Default Cover – opt-in form available from our website, or by using Bendigo SmartStart Super Online.

You may cancel or vary the cover at any time by completing the relevant form. To apply for Fixed and/or Income Protection cover you will need to supply evidence of health by completing the Insurance Application and Personal Health Statement available from our website. Alternatively, you can complete the Insurance Online application process with your adviser or complete a Tele-interview with the insurer (which must be organised by your financial adviser). In addition, you may be asked to provide additional information as requested by the insurer. Insurance cover only commences once the insurer has accepted your application.

Warning: We are required by law to cancel your insurance cover if no contributions have been received into your account for a period of 16 continuous months.

You can advise us in writing, before your cover is cancelled, that you want your cover to continue even if your account is inactive by using Bendigo SmartStart Online, by completing the Insurance opt-in form or by advising us on your application form when you join.

You should read the important information about 'Insurance in your super' before making a decision. Go to the Insurance Guide, located at www.betashares.com.au/super/documents. The material about 'Insurance in your super' may change between the time when you read this Statement and the day when you acquire the product.

9. How to open an account

You need to complete the Bendigo SmartStart Super Application Form which accompanies this PDS. You can do this online at www.betashares.com.au/super/smartstart-super or alternatively you can print a copy of the Bendigo SmartStart Super Application Booklet which also contains a Binding Death Benefit Nomination Form and a Request to Transfer Form from our website and complete. Please submit the completed forms to us in accordance with the instructions contained in those forms.

If you do not make an investment selection your account will be attributed to Bendigo MySuper. This means your superannuation benefits will be invested in accordance with Bendigo MySuper's age-based lifecycle investment strategy.

If you no longer wish to be invested in Bendigo MySuper and wish to make your own investment choice, you can do this at any time by making an investment switch either online or in writing and providing a Deposit Instruction.

You can also choose to decline the Default Death and TPD insurance cover on your application form or cancel your cover by writing to us. You also have the option to tailor your insurance cover to your personal circumstances.

Cooling-off

For members who change their mind you may write to us and request cancellation of your application. The request must be received within 14 days from the earlier of:

- the time you receive written confirmation of the opening of your account; or
- 5 days after the opening of your account.

The amount refunded will be adjusted to take into account of any increases or decreases in the value of the investments you may have selected, any tax payable and any reasonable administration expenses. Please note, you cannot exercise your cooling-off rights if you make any transaction on your account during the cooling-off period.
